

Planetary Health and Human Adaptation

... in the living environment, lifestyle systems, and modern technological society of today from a viewpoint encompassing the past, present and future

September 10 - 12, 2025

University of Twente
Enschede, the Netherlands

Registration and abstract submission will open on April 1, 2025

Preliminary Program

Pre-meeting (Sep 9)

Young investigators social meeting

Day 1 (Sep 10)

- Planery Session
- Young investigators'session
- Topical session 1: Where are we coming from: Genetics and evolution
- Topical session 2: Who are we -- Physiology and cognitive and neurological function, locomotion and exercise

Day 2 (Sep 11)

- Topical session 3: Who are we -- Biological rhythms, sleep
- Topical session 4: Who are we -- Growth, developments, nutrition, and aging
- Topical session 5: Where are we going -- Adaptation, human-machine interface

Day 3 (Sep 12)

- Planery Session
- Topical session 6: Where are we going -- Ecological / Sociocultural approach, public health; how physiological anthropology can contribute to Planetary Health: solving social issues or social transformation
- Closing discussion and awards ceremony

Important Deadline

June 1, 2025: Early registration
June 1, 2025: Abstract submission deadline
Aug 1, 2025: Late registration

Registration

Regular: €350.00 early registration. €450.00 after Student: €200.00 early registration. €450.00 after